

Sometimes this setting can seem like an anarchist paradise, no government, people rediscovering self reliance, etc. When players start to like the world too much put some of these cards in the stacks.

These are pre-filled out cards with horror themes.This world is not a pretty one. Cyberpunk is dystopian.

Engram Fraud	Manikin Virus	Shah Feghan
Level 2 data attack	Level 4 computer virus	Level 5 serial killer
Aspects	Aspects	Aspects
•Your life was perfect once	•Affects robots	•Terrorist
•You had success, love, money	•Makes them want to skin humans and wear the skin.	•Theatrical
•You'll do anything to get it back		•Unassuming
•Works best over high resolution direct neural interface connections.		•Seems nice
	This can replace a robot's card, or if one of the PCs is a robot, this virus can attack it.	•Loves his job
Hackers and AIs sometimes try to insert false memories into people's heads to get them to do things for them.		Shah Feghan means King of Lamentation in Farsi.
